

KAYAKS WITH A SENSE OF PURPOSE

2018

Using the best grade of rotomolding polyethylene, our Cross-Max process combines by-design reinforcement to the natural mechanical qualities of HDPE to provide the right equation of stiffness, weight, durability and quality of finish

Cross-Light construction is the perfect combination of the advantages of rotomolded and composite boats. It creates a boat that is up to 25% lighter, stiffer, faster, and let's face it, looks better that a comparable rotomolded boat while being significantly tougher and more affordable than a comparable composite boat. With Cross-Light you get it all: lightweight, beautiful, tough, and durable.

Our new ultralight kayaks are meant to be just that: ultra light. We have reviewed every aspect of our Cross-Light construction with an emphasis on weight reduction. This gives us an additional 15-25% weight savings vs our cross light construction, which makes these the lightest kayaks in their category, bar none!
